

4/2/71

Dear Don,

Early-morning afterthought:

I have a friend who is the friend and representative of the widow and has just performed some literary services for her.

I'll mention your interest to him;

If it does not confront him with a conflict, I think he'll be helpful.

And, if the end product is good, he is in publishing.

Hurriedly,